Support Matters

EXCERPTS FROM CHAPTER LETTER OF ENDORSEMENT

"Rho Delta Omega Chapter stands united in our support of our Soror, Audrey Kay, for the position of Supreme Tamiouchos of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated®. Soror Audrey has the skill, temperament, and experience to lead our beloved sisterhood in the stewardship of our sorority's financial operations, and we could not be more excited that she wants to continue to be of service on an international scale."

LEADERSHIP

"Soror Audrey currently serves on the sorority's International Finance Committee, trasversing regions to connect with sorors to set strategy and streamline chapter financial reporting. Soror Audrey served as the Far Western Regional Tamiouchos from 2016-2020. She is a sought-after workshop presenter training on chapter financial best practices at the 2021 Leadership Conference/69th Boule II, at regional conferences, and at chapter retreats. She also presented at the International Financial Forum. During her tenure as Far Western Regional Tamiouchos, she annually reported on the region's financial health and strength.

SISTERHOOD

"She is humble and kind; she exudes a quiet strength and grace that calms all around her and lets us know that everything is under control. Sorors who encounter her share how Soror Audrey helped them at a moment's notice, how she showed up to support an event, or how she was there in a time of need. Most importantly, Soror Audrey is a servant leader who serves her sorority, her community, and all mankind."

Soror Carol R. Dixon, 25th Far Western Regional Director - Soror Audrey Kay is the best qualified candidate for the position of Supreme Tamiouchos. She was the Far Western Region Tamiouchos during my tenure as Regional Director and was exceptional in managing the regional funds. Audrey's experience as a seasoned CPA and business owner provides her with the financial acumen to manage the fiscal responsibilities of our multi-million dollar organization. Her ability to articulate financial information was recognized by the Supreme Basileus allowing Audrey the opportunity to serve on the International Finance Committee. Audrey is a woman of high ethical and moral standards. She can be entrusted to manage all financial assets with a high level of confidence and business integrity. Soror Audrey Kay is the candidate to serve as our next Supreme Tamiouchos.

Soror Barbara Denson Trotter, 24th Far Western Regional Director - I endorse Audrey Kay, a 'phenomenal CPA' who is already prepared to serve as the fiscal officer of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated®. She is no stranger to federal and state tax structures, audits and inquiries. She brings the training, skills and experience from corporate America. She has served as auditor and financial advisor to for-profit and nonprofit boards. In addition, she is a past chapter and Far Western Region Tamiouchos and a member of the AKA International Finance Committee where she availed herself of the opportunity to train chapter financial officers. Soror Audrey is a phenomenal AKA who has the will and the skills to execute the fiduciary and ethical responsibilities which the Supreme Tamiouchos position requires and demands. She will garner resources, protect our assets and grow our financial portfolio such that it distinguishes the Alpha Kappa Alpha financial rating and elevates our credit worthiness exponentially, to establish the AKA financial brand as a fiscally sound, world class corporation, which is second to none. Audrey has what it takes to give the Fortune 500 companies a run for their money. Let's take it to the next level with Audrey Kay. She is ready now and does not need on the job training to grow and protect our assets.

Soror Kennedy Gamble, Basileus, Xi Beta Chapter - Stanford University - As the Basileus of Xi Beta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.,® I am pleased to support the candidacy of Soror Audrey Kay who demonstrates the rare and sincere ability of commitment to service while simultaneously making the intricacies of financial reporting clear and concise. She was happy to present this critical aspect of our organization's structure in a comprehensive and yet easy-to-comprehend manner. Soror Audrey is there for undergraduate and graduate sorors alike. This is our chapter's candidate, and we are proud to back a soror who demonstrates both sisterliness and utter proficiency in all she does.

VISION

Service is at the heart of our beloved sorority, and my vision is to serve and execute the fiduciary and ethical responsibilities of the Supreme Tamiouchos while protecting and growing the financial assets of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. I will lead and train the next generation of financial stewards for the sorority. Whether undergraduate or graduate, skilled or novice, I will help my fellow sorors protect our finances, grow our base, and clearly communicate the financial standing of our organization. This will be accomplished by implementing automated reporting tools and sharpening our skills with financial training workshops.

GOALS

- To develop an integrated non-profit accounting system for the sorority to increase accuracy, improve efficiency and enhance accountability.
- To empower sorors to critically review financial documents; thereby holding all members accountable while safeguarding assets.
- To demonstrate financial responsibility by ensuring the records are properly maintained and prepared at the Chapter, Regional and National levels.
- To present financial information accurately and with transparency.

Appointment to Exempt Organization Technical Resource Panel

In 2021, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) appointed Soror Audrey as one of only ten Exempt Organizations Tax Technical Resource Panel members.

This national panel monitors the IRS, Treasury, Congress, and other government officials' legislative and regulatory activities and collaborates with organizations such as the American Bar Association. Soror Audrey supplies guidance on tax practices, policy matters, and draft legislation impacting exempt organizations. This prestigious appointment is for a four-year term.

Executive Board Member of NAACP

Soror Audrey has been a member of the Executive Board of the Hayward, South Alameda County NAACP in Northern California for thirteen years. She currently serves as the Executive Treasurer of the organization. Soror Audrey has relentlessly addressed systemic racism and human rights violations against Black people, people of color, and those marginalized by life's circumstances. One of her goals is to disrupt racial disparities in the criminal justice system and achieve equality and equity within law enforcement. She worked with county officials and the NAACP to implement expungement clinics to help people with criminal records obtain Certificates of Rehabilitation, dismissal of convictions, and restoration of voting rights. Voting rights continues to be a top priority that requires our vigilance, advocacy, engagement, and protection.
